Characters:

1. Sgt. 'Soap' MacTavish – the player. Does not speak.
2. Capt. Price – British SAS. Squad leader.
3. Gaz – British SAS. Second in command to Price.
4. Nikolai – Russian Ultranationalist informant.
5. 'Baseplate' – SAS central command.

Setting:

An Ultranationalist storage facility in Russia: satellite imaging has shown that the captured Nikolai is being held here. A British SAS squad under the command of Capt. Price has been sent to recover him.

The squad is at the entrance of the facility. Capt. Price is giving a last minute briefing.

Price

Baseplate, this is Bravo-Six, confirm we are at the location.

Baseplate

Confirmed, Bravo-Six, the target should be in that facility.

Price (to team)

Alright, you heard them. Gaz cover the right flank...

Gaz

On it.

Price

Soap, you're with me.

Price sneaks to the first door. He opens it slowly. There is a guard on the phone.

Price

Hold up, I'll take care of this.

Price sneaks up behind the guard and stabs him in the neck. Suddenly, another door swings open.

Price

Someone's coming. Take him out.

If the player is able to take out the guard quietly...

Price

Good night.

Price walks up to the door where the guard came from.

Price

Three tangos inside. On my mark... (Price throws a flashbang inside)

Price

Weapons free.

Price and Gaz storm in and take everyone out.

Gaz

Well, that wasn't too hard, now was it?

Price

No sign of Nikolai. Soap, grab those documents from the table.

Price and Gaz check the next room. Nikolai is there with a guard patrolling. The room is also stacked with several explosive weapons.

Gaz

Blimey, there's enough explosive in that room to level half the city.

Price

Soap, crawl through that vent and take out that guard. Quietly.

Player begins to crawl through the vent.

Price

Remember, if you shoot any of those explosives, we're all toast.

Player comes through the ceiling and takes the guard out. Gaz and Price enter.

Price

Soap, cut him loose.

Gaz

Nikolai are you all right?

Price

Baseplate, the package is secure...

Nikolai

Zakhayev... he's in the next building.

Price

Baseplate, did you copy that?

Baseplate

Copy that, Bravo-six, you are cleared to engage. Sending evac to the roof of the target building.

Nikolai

We don't have much time.

Price

We'd better get moving, then.

They break down the door to the next room. A firefight ensues.

Nikolai

Zakhayev is in the west building!

Price

Let's take a shortcut! Gaz! Get some C4 on that wall!

Gaz

Soap, watch my back!

Gaz plants the C4.

Gaz

Fire in the hole!

The C4 creates an opening into the parking lot of the next building. The team storms in. Once the parking lot has been cleared...

Gaz

All clear!

Price

Everyone on me!

Once everyone has gathered...

Price

Soap, plant some C4 on that elevator. Then regroup with us in the stairwell.

Once the player has planted C4...

Price

Everyone, up the stairs! Move!

They reach the third floor...

Price

Gaz, you and Nikolai stay here and watch for the elevator. Soap, follow me to the roof.

They're halfway to the roof...

Price

We're almost there! Move! Move!

They reach the roof...

Price

Gaz, wait for my signal!

Gaz

The elevator's on its way, sir.

Price

Steady...

Gaz

It's here.

Price

Now!

Player triggers the C4. It explodes, Russian voices are heard.

Price

Soap, on the ropes! Go, go, go!

Price and Soap rappel down and crash through the glass windows. A firefight ensues. In the middle of the firefight, a flashbang is thrown.

Price

Flashbang, look out!

The flashbang explodes. A few seconds later...

Price

Where's Zakhayev!

Gaz

Sir! I see him! He's on the fire escape!

Price

Don't let him get away!

A sound of a helicopter is heard. Zakhayev's son is seen heading for the fire escape.

Gaz

That's his son! They're getting away!

Price

Move! Move!

Everyone rushes up the fire escape in front of the player. Once the player has gone up the fire escape, Gaz is seen holding down Zakhayev's son while a transport copter flies away.

Price

Baseplate, this is Bravo-six. We've lost Zakhayev, but we've got his son.

Additional Dialogue

If the player is not able to take the guard out quietly...

Price

We've been spotted! Gaz, go!

If the player does not enter the vent...

Price

Soap, get in the vent by the vending machines.

Soap, we don't have much time. Get in that vent!

Bloody hell, Soap, you're the only one that can fit in there.

If the player needs to regroup with Capt. Price and is lost

Price

Soap, over here.
